The Road Trip That Changed

The Road Trip that Changed the World is a brilliant and gripping portrayal of what ails church and culture, combined with the redemptive wisdom of how to fix it. People stream into our Swiss L'Abri community from all over the world. They deeply struggle with a myriad of issues, including which direction to take in life. So many roads go nowhere.

The Road Trip that Changed the World: The Unlikely Theory ...

The Road Trip That Changed The World is a diagnostic narrative on the lightweight spirituality we inherited from Jack Kerouac, who, in his novel, On The Road, reacted against the conformity of the 1940's by abandoning home, family, and place in search of the unfettered freedom of the road.

Changed tires on road trips a few times. I've been lucky and as soon as i got to the shop they were able to get me in, you might have to wait either around the shop or kill half a day in whatever town\city the shop is in if they go by appointment and are busy. Shops around me really suck for tire changes.
